

Locust Plant Bug Damage

The two trees pictured below are both skyline locust trees. The locust on the left was treated by the Certified Arborists at Tree Green Tree Specialists. The locust at right is being devastated by a damaging insect called a Locust Plant bug.

The population of this tiny green insect has been increasing in recent years.

Protect your valuable landscaping this year and next with the tree specialist at Tree Green.

Which tree would look better in your yard?

Call today for a FREE
diagnosis and estimate.
Tree Green Tree Specialists
630.668.4350